

SECRET

IAC-D-80/6
1 May 1957

TAB A

DEFICIENCIES IN BIOLOGICAL WARFARE INTELLIGENCE

I. Soviet Intentions and Plans to Use Biological Warfare

A. Soviet policy and doctrine on the employment of biological warfare

Relative emphasis on plans for clandestine biological warfare and for overt large-scale biological warfare

B. Indications of the imminence of employment of BW

Information on changes in production rate, stockpiling, distribution of agents and dissemination devices to forward areas, etc.

II. Offensive BW Capability of the USSR

A. Program

Organization, scope, and magnitude of program: facilities* and key personnel involved; budget or other allocations for program

B. Agents

Identification and characteristics of BW agents being prepared for use against personnel, * livestock* or crops

C. Production of agents

1. Actual production rate and maximum production rate

2. Description and location of pilot plant facilities

* Partial but significant gap

SECRET